Jeremy Lichtenstein Is NAR's Good Neighbor Award Finalist

The Greater Capital Area Association of REALTORS® (GCAAR) is pleased to announce that member Jeremy Lichtenstein of RE/MAX Realty Services in Bethesda has been selected as one of 10 finalists for the National Association of REALTORS® (NAR) Good Neighbor Award. Jeremy is the founder of KIND (Kids In Need Distributors), an organization that provides weekend meals for children throughout Montgomery County.

"This year's 10 Good Neighbor finalists have raised the bar in building stronger communities at home and around the globe," says NAR President Elizabeth Mendenhall. "They inspire and remind all of us about the true meaning of giving back and we are proud of these REALTORS® for dedicating hundreds of hours of their personal time to these important causes."

On October 2, five winners will be named from among the 10 finalists. Winners will receive a $10,000 grant and national media exposure for their efforts, including a feature in the November/December issue of REALTOR® Magazine. The winners will also receive travel expenses to the 2018 REALTORS® Conference & Expo in Boston, where they will accept an award in front of thousands of their peers. The remaining five finalists will also be named honorable mentions and receive a $2,500 grant in recognition of their work.

The public is invited to vote for their favorites of the 10 finalists. The top three vote getters will win bonus grants of $2,500, $1,250 and $1,250, respectively, for their nonprofits. Cast your vote at realtor.com/goodneighbor between now and September 28.
