"Our board members make invaluable contributions to our industry and our community and I look forward to working with them to advance our mission," said GCAAR CEO Edward R. Krauze. "We are also very appreciative of Jan Brito's leadership and the work of our 2021 Board of Directors and thank them for their steadfast service to our association."

"As I begin my tenure as GCAAR president, my challenge to our membership is to 'level up' and do better, all around. My goal is to encourage us to focus on the experience that we collectively create as an association, for our fellow REALTOR® members; for our clients; and as individuals, for our community," said incoming GCAAR President Harrison Beacher during the GCAAR induction ceremony.

"As GCAAR members and as REALTORS®, we're called to give everyone a shot, try a little harder, to accept people for who they are – and to level the playing field for everyone who wants to participate in this housing market."

The new board members began their terms with GCAAR effective January 1, 2022.
